HI93 Oahu Crowns Best Tattoo in Second Annual HI.'s Best Tattoo Contest

HONOLULU, HAWAII (SEPTEMBER 10, 2022) – KQMQ 93.1 FM - HI93 celebrates its local cultural roots with the second-annual HI's Best Tattoo contest. A panel of expert and celebrity judges named Travis Wise of Waianae as having "HI's Best Tattoo". The winning tattoo features the Iolani Palace designed by Orly of Black Moon Tattoo in Kaneohe. Wise received $1,000 in cash and a trip for two on Alaska Airlines to Las Vegas to stay at the All-New California Hotel and Casino. Wise along with 9 more semi-finalists were reviewed by judges Rella from the Morning HI on KQMQ 93.1FM; Marko Livingston, owner and tattoo artist, Streetfelt Tattoos; Shad Bolosan, last year's H.I.'s Best Tattoo grand prize winner; and Jesus Garcia from Wet'n'Wild Hawaii – host location for the contest on Saturday, September 10, 2022.

The criteria for the contest was that the permanent tattoo represent local culture. Entries were submitted online and 10 finalists, who each received an annual membership to Planet Fitness, were selected by popular fan votes. "HI93 is more than a local radio station that plays local music because we live in the communities we serve and celebrate local culture in every way," says Kelsey "K-Smooth" Yogi, Program Director, KQMQ 93.1FM. "Our local djs are in touch with our local listeners on air and off at events throughout O'ahu. We take great pride in saying that HI93 is the station where locals win!"

Wise exclaims, “It took me 3 years to get this tattoo because I was afraid of the pain but I want to get more. Definitely not over yet! Thank you to HI93 – Hawaii’s Local Hits, Planet Fitness, Alaska Airlines, Vacations Hawaii and Wet'n'Wild for the amazing prizes!”

HI93 Oahu plays Hawaii’s Local Hits. You can listen at 93.1 FM on the radio, on a smart device, streamed from the HI93 app or from our website at hi93oahu.com.
